

Began a Good Work

(10/27/2025)

'For I am confident of this very thing, that He who began a good work in you will perfect it until the day of Christ Jesus. '

Philippians 1:6

We all know that this thing we call the Christian life is a journey and a process. When we accepted Christ, got saved, or were born again (however you want to say it), our old sin nature was replaced by the Holy Spirit. It is my interpretation and understanding with this and what Jesus' death and resurrection did in the heavenlies, we are set free from the law of sin and death. Meaning sin is no longer inherent. However, as Romans 12:2 among other passages state we must renew our minds. THIS is the journey and process that marks the Christian life. This is the "Good work" that He has begun in us.

Sadly, for some of us, this journey and process is made more difficult not only by our past choices and behaviors, but by those of others and what they have done to us. However, what does this verse promise us? We can be confident and assured that our God and loving Father is faithful and He WILL continue to work in and through us until we are complete, mature and whole in Him or we are with Him at the end of the age, whichever comes first.

So my dear friends, wherever you are at this very moment on this journey, whatever He is doing at this time in this process, you can trust and know without a doubt that He SEES where you are, He is PRESENT where you are, and He is WORKING where are even if you yourself can't see it or feel it.

Now faith is the substance of things hoped for, the evidence of things not seen. Hebrews 11:1 NKJV

SO, SINCE YOU AREN'T PERFECT AND YOU AREN'T IN HEAVEN THEN HE IS WORKING IN YOU.
